

West Midlands Minority Ethnic Achievement Awards 2009

WEST MIDLANDS
MINORITY ETHNIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS
INVESTING IN DIVERSITY

Nomination Form

(Nominations close Friday 30 October 2009)

The West Midlands Minority Ethnic Achievement Awards are open to individuals and organisations working in or providing services to people in Birmingham, Coventry, Dudley, Sandwell, Solihull, Walsall, or Wolverhampton.

You can either nominate yourself or put someone else forward if you think they deserve it. Different categories are open to different people and organisations – have a look at the category descriptions at www.brap.org.uk/nominations for more information.

Confidentiality

We realise that you may wish to disclose private, sensitive, or commercial information as part of your nomination. All information will be treated in the strictest confidence and will not be passed on or disclosed to third parties.

Your entry

Remember, we're looking for exceptional achievement, so make sure you back up your nominations with hard evidence and remember to include the information asked for on the website. An entry shouldn't just be a CV or list of achievements. If a nominee has made a difference in the community, a good entry will describe the impact and say why it's important.
